From 2nd till 17th of November 2021

02.11 - 04.11.2021 (3 days), 16.11 - 17.11.2021(2 days)

Volunteering Potential LAB Evaluation Seminar (3rd mobility) on learning through volunteering will happen on virtual format on zoom platform

TOPIC AND AIM

The aim of the project is to improve the quality of volunteering projects by developing the competence of people organizing volunteering projects and/or cooperating with volunteers through the development of the following skills:

- identifying volunteers' needs and directing them to adequate tasks,
- recognizing motivations of volunteers and using its potential,
- improving the quality of communication with volunteers (including the ability to resolve conflicts),
- the development of skills to promote volunteering (including learning outcomes in volunteering) through various channels,
- identifying the potential of learning in volunteering and supporting volunteer learning.

OBJECTIVES OF THE EVALUATION SEMINAR:

- overview and learn from the VOLUNTEERING experiences in different countries,
- develop skills of identifying learning potential in volunteering activities,
- develop supporting skills for volunteers' learning process (exchange of monitoring and evaluation tools),
- increase knowledge on evaluation tools for learning through volunteering,
- co-create the Volunteering Potential LAB publication.

INFORMATION ABOUT TRAINERS

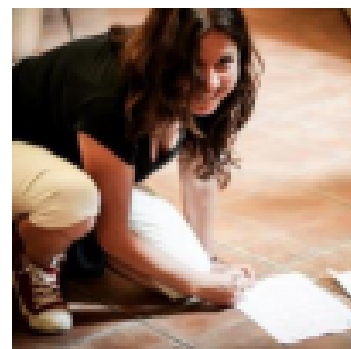

The training will be lead by two trainers:

Kamila Lenczewska:

Kamila has been a trainer for a decade and is working mostly in the field of youth and intergenerational work, volunteering, intercultural dialogue and human rights. She is the transnational projects coordinator & president of the board of CIM Horyzonty. Before she was working for different NGO's in Poland and Spain as a transcultural dialogue trainer and volunteering projects coordinator (Volunteering Centre of Poznań 2018, European Solidarity Corps and formal European Voluntary Service). She strongly believes in the power of non-formal education, local activism, empathy and bikes.

Bogusława Garus (Bogi) - freelance translator and educator. Ex EVS and local project coordinator (for 5 years) at CIM Horyzonty in Poznań and Regional Volunteering Center in Kielce, responsible for managing work of volunteers in long term (EVS) and short term projects (workcamps and local projects). Continuously fascinated with Non-Formal Education, she was a member of the international pool of trainers at Youth for Exchange and Understanding. Currently making first steps as an independent trainer next to so-called „normal job”
